

1. Air1 Radio serves the Southern California area to promote positive Christian rock music. Other stations in the area don't play this type of music. Southern CA would lose a valuable source of encouragement from positive and uplifting songs that reach out to the youth of today. It is in the public interest to keep the service provided by Air1 because people need a positive alternative to the mainstream radio stations.